Adoration

*"Let the children come to me and do not hinder them; for to such belong the Kingdom of Heaven."
(Matthew 19:14)*

Reasons to bring the kids to Adoration:

- Children who previously had only the weekly experience of Mass, discover that the Host is actually the person of Jesus, mysteriously hidden.
- They develop a greater interest in the mysteries of our Faith and the liturgy of the Mass.

Visit www.childrenofhope.org for more about bringing children to Eucharist Adoration.

"For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." (Mark 10:45)

If you held a mirror up to your life, would it reflect God's love and grace? If you are struggling with this, try changing your attitude from "I want more" to "thank you God for everything you have given me, I have enough to share". This change in perspective will bring you joy through service to others.

OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH

10 WAYS TO SUPPORT HER WHEN SHE'S UNEXPECTEDLY EXPECTING

I had been brought up to believe that life is always a gift, but it certainly didn't feel like one when I gazed in shock at a positive pregnancy test. As a mom who had my first baby in college, I know that an unexpected pregnancy can sometimes bring fear, shame, and doubt.

However, I also know that an unexpected pregnancy can bring joy, excitement, awe, gratitude, and deeper love than I knew was possible—not to mention the little bundle who inspires these sentiments! About nine months after looking at that pregnancy test, I received the very best gift I have ever been given: my daughter, Maria*.

An unexpected pregnancy might be confusing along the way, but life—though at times difficult—is ultimately beautiful. Perhaps one of your friends has become pregnant unexpectedly. As someone who has been there, I encourage you to support your friend in her new journey of being a mother.

Not sure how to help or what to say? Here are some tips:

1. Be available. An unexpected pregnancy can send a woman into crisis mode. If your friend just found out she is pregnant, she may not be thinking clearly, and she may feel she has no control over anything at the moment. Be aware of how she is responding to you. Listen to her and let her know you love her and are there for her any time she needs you. Don't pass judgment on her either interiorly or through words or body language.

2. Respond positively. When a woman experiencing challenging circumstances confides she is pregnant, the reaction of the first person she tells tends to set the tone for her decision-making. Avoid responding with shock or alarm, and be calm and understanding. Let her know you're there for her and that it's going to be okay. Pay close attention to her emotional state, and act accordingly. Depending on where she is emotionally, it may or may not be helpful to congratulate her at that time. However, it is always important to affirm that every person's life—including her child's and her own—is precious and beautiful no matter the circumstances.

3. Be honest. The journey through an unexpected pregnancy is not easy, and it's okay if you don't know the perfect words to say. Just be honest. Let her know you are there for her, and ask her how she is feeling and how you can support her. It's a good way to open the door to communicate, and she may be grateful for the opportunity to talk freely with someone. She might become emotional at times, but be patient—let's not forget hormones; the struggle is real.

An unexpected pregnancy can be a difficult and frightening time, and it's important that your friend knows you are thinking of her and supporting her. Although the tips mentioned can be helpful, don't forget the most important thing is to pray. Even if it's just a quick two-second prayer, prayer is the most effective way we can help. Pray for her, for her child, and for guidance in how you can give her the best possible support.

Heartbeat International provides a directory of pregnancy services, which is accessible at www.heartbeatinternational.org/worldwide-directory. March For Life

Saint of the Week:

St. John of Capistrano

Born: 1386

Memorial: October 23

Died: October 23, 1456

Canonized: October 16, 1690

St. John was the son of a former German knight. He studied law at the University of Perugia and practiced as a lawyer in the courts of Naples. During a war with a neighboring town he was betrayed and imprisoned where he had a conversion. Upon his release he entered the Franciscan community at Perugia in 1416. After his ordination he traveled throughout Italy, Germany, Bohemia, Austria, Hungary, Poland, and Russia brilliantly preaching penance and establishing numerous communities of Franciscan renewal. When Mohammed II was threatening Vienna and Rome, St. John, at the age of seventy, was commissioned by Pope Callistus III to preach and lead a crusade against the invading Turks. Marching at the head of seventy thousand Christians, he gained victory in the great battle of Belgrade against the Turks in 1456. He is the patron of jurists.

FEED the HUNGRY!

Our parish's works of mercy.

For the first part of the PSR year our PSR kids will be helping out their neighbors by collecting food for Sufficient Grace. Sufficient Grace is a non-profit organization that packs lunches for hungry school kids to take home. For some, that lunch they take home may be all they get for dinner.

Each class has certain items they are asked to give:

- 1st grade: Pudding cups.
- 2nd grade: Fruit or applesauce cups.
- 3rd grade: Granola bars or protein bars.
- 4th grade: Microwave single serve meals (like Chef Boyardee).
- 5th grade: Microwave single serve meals (like Chef Boyardee).
- 6th grade: Single serving size bags of mini muffins, cookies or similar.

Throughout the month of November, we will be welcoming in the Year of Mercy by asking parishioners to bring in canned goods for our local food pantry. More info on the Year of Mercy coming soon!

You are invited to participate!

In anticipation of All Souls Day, November 2, we are providing a book of remembrance. You are invited to include names of deceased loved ones in our Book of Remembrance. Create a family page or half page to list your loved ones' names.

Their intentions will be remembered at our Masses for All Souls.
