Is Jesus calling you to Adoration?

We have an opening for Friday evening adoration from 10 p.m. to 11 p.m. Please contact Elaine Bonacci at 614-557-3409.

"So when you go to visit Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, ask Him to reveal Himself to you.

Listen for His still, small voice in your heart.

After all, prayer is conversation with God -- conversation with a God who loves to talk with us and embrace us with His love."

~ Pope Francis

St. Agnes Church on W. Mound St. is seeking volunteers to help with the Free Produce Market held on the last Friday of May, June, July, August, September and October. Volunteers should arrive at 1:30 p.m. If you can help please contact the St. Agnes office at 614-276-5413. Thank you.

What is the Bishop's Annual Appeal? The BAA is a diocese-wide effort that supports the pastoral services and ministries of the Catholic Church in the Diocese of Columbus. The BAA is an opportunity for all Catholics in our diocese as a united diocesan family to share in our call to be good stewards of our Church and its people.

Our parish has been called upon to raise $41,859.02.

Last year we had 33% participation. We would like to increase that number. If you can pledge $100 over 10 months, that is $10.00 per month or two lattes. Your sacrifice will be invaluable.

Every single dollar makes a difference. And every dollar we raise over our goal comes back to our parish without assessment.

We have been very blessed; please remember those among us who are not as fortunate. Together, we can make this the best year ever. We can do more!

THE JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY

GENERAL AUDIENCE: On the parable of the Good Samaritan

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

In our catechesis for this Holy Year of Mercy, we now turn to the parable of the Good Samaritan. Jesus had taught the great commandment of love for God and neighbour. In reply to the question: "Who is my neighbour?", he recounts the story of the priest and the levite who pass by a man in need at the side of the road. Their religiosity is ultimately inauthentic, for it does not find expression in service to others. Love, the Lord tells us, is never abstract or distant; it "sees" and it responds. The compassion shown by the Samaritan is an image of the infinite mercy of God, who always sees our needs and draws near to us in love. The command to love God and neighbour, then, is supremely practical; it entails caring for others even to the point of personal sacrifice. By the end of the parable, we see that the "neighbour" is not so much the man in need, but rather the one who responded to that need with compassion. Jesus tells all of us to be neighbours in this sense: "Go and do likewise". He himself is the model of the Good Samaritan; by imitating his love and compassion, we show ourselves truly to be his followers. Source: Zenit.org
