Living a stewardship lifestyle means stepping out of our comfort zone when needed. Many of us like to play it safe, not cause waves, stay in the middle of the road. In today's world we are called to be informed and take a stance for life, marriage and religious liberty.

Dear Lord,

As we prepare for a new school year we ask for
Your help:

Help our children make friends and be a friend.
Help our children listen to and learn from their teachers.

Help our children discover the gifts You have given them.

Help them grow in knowledge as well as kindness,
compassion and respect.

Help them to know that YOU are always with them.
Help them to be strong leaders.

Help them to strive for success and to accept their shortcomings with grace.

Help them to never give up so they may realize their dreams.

Help our children shine the light of your Son, Jesus in all they do.

Help keep them safe when they are away from their families.

For all this we ask your help dear Lord.

In your name we pray.

Amen!

There is a required training class for all Catechists, hall monitors, and aides on Wednesday, August 24, 2016 at the PAC at 7 p.m.

Please contact Renee Dvorsky if you have any questions or cannot attend. Thank you!

Who me?

And God said, "Go, be a CATECHIST."

And I said, "Who?...Me?"

And God smiled. "Yes!...You!"

And I said: "But I'm not ready yet.

I've got company coming.

And I can't leave the kids.

And you know there is no one who can take my place."

And God smiled, "Are you sure?"

And God said, "Go, we need CATECHISTS."

And I said, "But I don't want to."

And God smiled, "I didn't ask if you wanted to."

And I said, "Listen, I'm not the kind of person to get involved in teaching.

Besides, my family won't like it.

And my neighbors - what will they think?"

And God smiled, "I know well."

And yet a third time God said:

"Go be a CATECHIST!"

And I said, "Do I have to?"

And God smiled, "Do you love me?"

And I said: "Look! I'm scared!

The kids are going to hate me and cut me to pieces.

And I can't take it all by myself."

And God smiled, "Where do you think I'll be?"

And God said to me, "Be a CATECHIST!"

And I said: "Here I am Lord! Send me!"

We need catechists. If

God is calling you to help, please prayerfully consider signing up for this coming school year. If God is calling you, call me at 614-873-8850.

Thank you!

St. Joseph Youth Ministry

Know-Love-Serve

Parents of Teens: We Need You

We are always looking for talented ministers to serve in our youth ministry program. We believe that solid ministry is built on relationships between adult staff and teens. Relationships are key to teens feeling loved and accepted so that they can understand the love of God in practical ways. If you are more a behind the scenes person, we can always use help with setup/food/games/cleanup and more. Please consider volunteering to help make a difference in a teen's life this year. Contact Emily Winner at 740-602-1673.

THE JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY

General Audience:
'Poland, with its rich cultural and spiritual heritage, today reminds us that Europe has no future apart from its founding values, centered on the Christian vision of man and including the message of mercy expressed so eloquently in the last century by Saints John Paul and Faustina Kowalska.'

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

"My recent Pastoral Visit to Poland for World Youth Day took place twenty-five years after the historic visit of Saint John Paul II following the fall of the Iron Curtain. Poland, Europe and the world have changed greatly since then, but the young continue to be a prophetic sign of hope for the future. Waving the flags of their respective countries, they formed a mosaic of fraternity and a joyful response to the challenge of the Gospel. Poland, with its rich cultural and spiritual heritage, today reminds us that Europe has no future apart from its founding values, centered on the Christian vision of man and including the message of mercy expressed so eloquently in the last century by Saints John Paul and Faustina Kowalska. At Auschwitz-Birkenau, in silence, I pondered all that happened there, remembered the victims, and sensed the mercy of God that made itself felt even in that abyss of evil. Remembrance serves as a warning and a charge for our own time, so torn by conflicts, hatred and violence. I thank all those who made possible this visit, which offered a sign of fraternity and peace to Poland, Europe and the world."
