“And Peter said to them, ‘Repent, and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ...’ ACTS 2:38

The word “repent” means to turn from sin, to change our actions. When it comes to change, do we take responsibility for change or do we think that others have to change instead? Change that is permanent comes from within, we must take control and be disciplined. Remember though that we are not alone, Jesus is there to help lighten the load.

Pope Francis' General Audience: 'Don't Lose Heart. Accept Jesus' Invitation to Follow Him'

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

During this Easter season, our catechesis on Christian hope reflects on the resurrection of Jesus: the basis of our firm trust in God's constant protection and love. Saint Matthew's Gospel begins with the birth of Jesus as Emmanuel – "God with us" – and concludes with the Risen Lord's promise that he will remain with us always, to the end of the age. At every step of life's journey, God is at our side, leading us as he did the patriarchs of old, to the goal of our earthly pilgrimage. His care lasts "to the end of the age"; the heavens and the earth will pass away, yet he will continue to watch over us in his loving providence. From ancient times, Christian hope has been symbolized by the anchor, as a sign of its firm basis in God's promises, which have been fulfilled in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. Because our trust is in God, and not in ourselves or this world, we readily take up Jesus' invitation to follow him, nor do we lose heart before life's difficulties, disappointments and defeats. May our hope in victory of the Risen Christ confirm us on every step of our journey towards the fullness of eternal life.
