PHILIPPIANS 4:19

God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month – be generous with your gifts of time, talent and treasure and see how God provides for your needs.

Congratulations to Mr. & Mrs. Joshua Barry on the Holy Baptism of their daughter Kensington Sloane Barry on September 30, 2017. May the Good Lord bless and keep you and your family all the days of your life. Welcome to God's family, Little One.

The 12 promises of Our Lord to those who venerate His Sacred Heart:

1. I will give them all the graces necessary for their state in life.
2. I will give peace to their families.
3. I will console them in all their troubles.
4. They shall find in My Heart an assured refuge during life and especially at the hour of death.
5. I will pour abundant blessings on all their undertakings.
6. Sinners shall find in My Heart the source and Infinite Ocean of mercy.
7. Tepid souls shall become fervent.
8. Fervent souls shall speedily rise to great perfection.
9. I will bless the homes in which the Image of My Sacred Heart shall be exposed and honored.
10. I will give priests the power to touch the most hardened hearts.
11. Those who propagate this devotion shall have their name written in My Heart, and it shall never be effaced.
12. The all-powerful love of My Heart will grant to all those who shall receive Communion on the First Friday of nine consecutive months, the grace of final repentance; they shall not die under My displeasure, nor without receiving their Sacraments; My Heart shall be their assured refuge at the last hour.

BE NOT Afraid

When battered by life's storms, or immersed in a dense fog of suffering and uncertainty, we may feel alone and unequipped to handle the circumstances. Yet with words that echo through thousands of years into the corners of our hearts, the Lord says to us, "Do not fear: I am with you" (Isaiah 41:10).

He speaks these words not as one who merely observes our pain, but as one who experienced immense suffering. And the very wounds that bear witness to his suffering indicate the essence of our identity and worth: we are loved by God.

Reflecting on the healed wounds of the Risen Christ, we see that even our most difficult trials can be the place where God manifests his victory. He makes all things beautiful. He makes all things new.

He is always with us. Jesus promised this when he gave the disciples the same mission he gives to each of us: Go.

Go be my hands and feet to a world enslaved by fear. Go to the woman who is unexpectedly pregnant and fears the future. Go to your friend who fears reprisal at work because he takes a stand for the protection of human life. Go to your aging parent in failing health who fears being a burden. And go to others, too, for their support.

We don't need to have everything figured out. We can simply follow the guidance of Our Blessed Mother, the first disciple: "Do whatever he tells you" (John 2:5).

Walk with each other. Do not be afraid to embrace God's gift of life. Whatever storms or trials we face, we are not alone. He is with us.

POPE FRANCIS' GENERAL AUDIENCE

'Let's Hope Firmly, Confidently in His Promises'

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

In our continuing catechesis on Christian hope, I would now like to reflect on the importance of combatting all that threatens our hope. As the ancient story of Pandora's box teaches us, hope remains as the treasure enabling mankind to face with trust in God's providence every evil let loose in this world. In our own day, hope motivates so many of our brothers and sisters forced to leave their homes in search of a better life, but also those who welcome them, "sharing the journey" with them and trusting in a better tomorrow. Hope is especially the virtue of the poor. As the mystery of Christmas teaches us, God came into this world among the poor, to bring the good news of our salvation. Hope is also the virtue of the young, who deserve not to be robbed of it by an often soulless and materialist society. Hope's greatest enemy is spiritual emptiness, the "noon-day devil" that tempts us to stop fighting and to yield to discouragement. Let us ask the Lord for the grace to hope more firmly in his promises, confident that his victory over the world will fill our hearts with joy as we face the future and all that it has in store for us.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

IN SERVICE TO ONE, IN SERVICE TO ALL.

CHARITY - UNITY - FRATERNITY - PATRIOTISM

Attention all men of St. Joseph Parish age 18 years and older:

Our local chapter of the Knights of Columbus Council #12772 is looking for Catholic men to join the world's largest Catholic fraternal service organization.

Founded by Father Michael J. McGivney, the Knights of Columbus is a fraternal benefit society dedicated to providing charitable services, promoting Catholic education and Catholic public policy positions, and actively defending Catholicism.

Our local chapter is very active in supporting church functions such as the annual Lenten fish fry and various local charitable organizations, such as the Plain City Food Pantry and Coats for Kids. We also have an active role in supporting seminarians at The Pontifical College Josephinum.

During the weekend of October 7th and 8th, Our Council will be hosting a membership drive and social after each Mass. Come join us for light refreshments in the church basement after 4:30 pm Mass Saturday and 8:30 am Mass Sunday as well as after the 11 am Mass in the PAC on Sunday in the double classroom.

If you have any question about Knights of Columbus, just ask a Brother wearing his Knights of Columbus shirt.
