“...as the Lord has forgiven you, so you must forgive.” - COLOSSIANS 3:13

Forgiveness: one of the hardest things for people to do. It's amazing how long we can hold a grudge or be angry with someone. As we celebrate the feast of the Holy Family, take this opportunity to give the gift of forgiveness to someone - maybe a family member, maybe a friend, maybe a co-worker or neighbor or, maybe yourself. Pick up the phone or text someone right now.

Thank you

We have a very special Parish full of good people with BIG hearts! This is most evident during the Holy Season, when the Lord ask us to reach out and help others even more. The Giving Tree program amazes us all every year! This program brings people together, young and old. As we watch the little ones carry their bags and boxes to place by the tree, they KNOW they are helping others! Why else would their parents wrap up TP and soap?!

Every package, several hundred of them, plus more than one thousand dollars in gift cards, will help a needy person at some point. It means a great deal to help others with their most basic needs. Blessed thanks to EVERY parish member who volunteered their time and treasure to help! Your gifts of money, talent and time are so appreciated and the fellowship we shared is priceless!

A HUGE thank you also, to ALL who helped, in so many ways with the three funerals in the last six weeks.

Expressing our love to the families of Joe Elias, Dave Harris and Joyce Madry, as we say our goodbyes to these loyal and beloved friends, is difficult, especially at this time of year. May the memory of them remain in our hearts throughout the coming year and beyond.

Finally, we urge you to look for ways to help strengthen our Parish. Find things you enjoy doing, and get involved! You will never be sorry and God will bless you for you good works. Christmas Blessings, Gloria

What is the Feast of the Holy Family?

The Feast of the Holy Family is dedicated to the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, commemorating their life together in Nazareth and calling us to focus on Catholic family life.

The feast is celebrated on the first Sunday after Christmas, unless Christmas falls on a Sunday, in which case it is celebrated on December 30. According to the Fisheaters website this feast is placed where it is on the calendar because “in Old Testament Law, a child wasn't a son of Abraham or a true part of the family until his circumcision at 8 days of age, an event of Christ's life that we celebrated on 1 January (from 25 Dec to 1 Jan are 8 days).” The feast was placed on the general calendar of the Roman Rite on October 26, 1921, by the Congregation of Rites under Pope Benedict XV.

The Church presents the Holy Family to us as a model for our own family life. Joseph was the head of the Holy Family and provided for Mary and Jesus with the work of his hands. He was obedient to the angel who told him to take Mary as his wife, what to name the new child and again when told to flee with them to Egypt. He taught Jesus the carpentry trade and what it was to be a man in the society in which they lived.

Mary took care of her family in the home. It was she who would have taught Jesus the Scriptures and prayers of their people when he was very young. It was through her example of managing the home that Jesus would formulate many of the examples he would later use in his teaching. Jesus saw work sanctified through the example of his earthly parents, who did all things well in the ordinary circumstances of daily life.

In his Apostolic Exhortation, Familiaris consortio, 60, Pope John Paul said:

“Do you teach your children the Christian prayers? Do you prepare them, in conjunction with the priests, for the sacraments that they receive when they are young – Confession, Communion and Confirmation? Do you encourage them, when they are sick, to think of Christ suffering, to invoke the aid of the Blessed Virgin and the saints? Do you say the family Rosary together...? Do you pray with your children, with the whole domestic community, at least sometimes? Your example of honesty in thought and action, joined to some common prayer, is a lesson for life and an act of worship of singular value. In this way you bring peace to your homes: Pax huic domui. Remember, it is thus that you build up the Church.”

In 2002, Pope John Paul II stated in his Angelus talk of December 29, “Every Christian family is called to show “convincingly that it is possible to live marriage fully in keeping with God's plan and with the true good of the human person - of the spouses, and of the children who are more fragile” (Novo Millennio ineunte, n. 47).

POPE FRANCIS' GENERAL AUDIENCE:

ON THE CELEBRATION OF MASS
OFFICIAL SUMMARY OF THE CATECHESIS
DEC. 20, 2017

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

In our continuing catechesis on the Eucharist, we now turn to the celebration of Mass, starting with the introductory rites. These rites are not marginal: they dispose us to listen in faith to the word of God and to partake worthily in the Eucharistic sacrifice. Each ritual gesture is expressive of the mysteries we prepare to celebrate. As the priest kisses the altar, we are reminded that Mass is an encounter of love with the living Christ. As we join in making the sign of the cross, we recall that by our baptism we share in the love of God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, revealed on the cross of Christ. So too, the liturgical greeting – “The Lord be with you” – and our response – “And with your spirit” – bring us together as members of Christ’s body the Church, each with his or her own gifts to offer in a harmonious symphony of praise and thanksgiving. The introductory rites culminate in the penitential act, in which we humbly acknowledge our sins, in order to pass with the Lord from death to new life through the sacramental celebration of his passion, death and resurrection.

Lord, thank you for a new year.

May everyone in our family be willing to begin anew with a clean slate. We know that you are always ready to forgive us. Help us to be willing to forgive ourselves and to forgive one another.

As we begin a new year, remind us of our truest values and our deepest desires. Help us to live in the goodness that comes from doing what you want us to do. Help us to put aside anxiety about the future and the past, so that we might live in peace with you now, one day at a time.

Happy New Year!
